

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

IN HAMPTON CHURCHES

Presiding Elder Tudor, of Richmond, to be at Methodist Church.

SUBJECTS OF SOME MINISTERS

"God's People in the March" Will Be Subject of Rev. Mr. Sanford, While Rev. Mr. Cuthrell Will Find Theme in "Power of Small Things."

Rev. John F. Cuthrell will preach this evening to his congregation in Central Methodist church, using as his subject: "The Power of Small Things." This evening Rev. W. V. Tudor, D. D., presiding elder of the Richmond district, will conduct the services. The services tonight will begin at 7:45.

The Christian Scientists will hold services this morning at 11 o'clock in No. 43 Hope street. Subject, "Probation After Death."

The pastor, Rev. T. Ryland Sanford, will preach this morning in the Memorial Baptist church at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30. There will be baptizing at the evening service, and "God's People in the March" will be the subject of Rev. T. Ryland Sanford in the Memorial Baptist church this morning, and "A Transient Repentance" at night. Special singing at both services. The members of the church are earnestly requested to attend these services and the public is cordially invited. Men's bible class will meet promptly at 10 o'clock. All men will have a hearty welcome to this service. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Men's prayer meeting at 7 p. m.

Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, D. D., will preach this morning on "Some Striking Facts That Deserve Our Sincere Consideration," and tonight his theme will be "Blood vs. Blood."

Rev. Abner C. Hopkins, Jr., will preach morning and evening to the congregation of the Hampton Presbyterian church.

Rev. W. V. Tudor, D. D., presiding elder of the Richmond district, who is here to conduct quarterly conference in the First Methodist church tomorrow evening, will preach to that congregation tonight. This morning, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Stiff, will preach on "My Neighbor." Mr. Stiff will preach in the East Hampton Methodist church tonight.

The conference tomorrow evening will be the last of the year and much interest is felt in it. The general conference meets in Petersburg in November.

A Great Assortment of Men's Suits & Overcoats

There are three grades in our great stock of suits and overcoats that stand out conspicuously. They are our $15, $18 and $20 grades. No matter how high your standard may have been, at these prices we are confident we have exceeded them. There have never been such suits and overcoats produced to sell at these prices.

We certainly would like for you to inspect same—you'll be agreeably surprised.

WOODMEN GOING TO NORFOLK.

Delegation from Hampton to Attend Unveiling This Afternoon.

A large delegation of the Woodmen of the World will go to Norfolk this afternoon to attend the unveiling of a monument under the auspices of the Elizabeth Camp in that city.

Members of Live Oak Camp will meet in their hall at 12:30 o'clock and will take the 1:20 boat at Old Point for Norfolk.

IS TWENTY-ONE YEARS OLD.

Harry Fuller, of Phoebus, Celebrates the Occasion With Reception.

Mr. Harry L. Fuller, captain of the Anchor Social Club, employed as a draftsman in the Newport News shipyard, celebrated his twenty-first birthday in his home in Phoebus Friday evening by tendering the members of the club a reception. The guests of the evening included Messrs. Lawrence Boyhan, Thomas Handle, John Dwyer, George Craig, Ted Craig, Thomas Russell, James Pemberton, William Webster, Perry Snow, Charles Giddings, Floyd Kemp, Cecil Wood, of Hampton, and Samuel Williams, of Newport News.

DEATH OF MRS. SCOTT.

She Was the Wife of Mr. J. W. Scott, of Phoebus.

Mrs. Catherine Forber Scott, wife of Mr. J. W. Scott, died in her residence in Mallory avenue, Phoebus, at 2:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Scott had been ill several weeks with typhoid fever, which was followed by an attack of heart trouble. She is survived by her husband and two little boys. Mrs. Scott was 26 years old and was very much liked by her circle of acquaintances.

Funeral services will be held in the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be in charge of Rev. Father William Fallon, rector of St. Mary's Star of the Sea Catholic church. The interment will be made in Oakland cemetery.

Messrs. J. J. Loughran, Daniel O'Keefe, Theodore Horner, G. H. Langer, William Terry and E. O. Hunt will act as the pallbearers.

MRS. ELIZABETH COFFEY SUCCEUMS TO PARALYSIS

Happiness Over the Return of Her Aged Husband Soon Ended By the Messenger of Death.

Mrs. Elizabeth Coffey, 71 years old, wife of Mr. T. M. Coffey, died in the residence of her husband in Willard avenue, Phoebus, late Friday night. Mrs. Coffey was stricken with paralysis Thursday afternoon and she sank rapidly until death claimed her. She was a most consistent member of the Phoebus Baptist church and one of the most beloved old women in that town. She is survived by her husband and two daughters—Mrs. Elizabeth Murray and Miss Emma Coffey. A peculiarly sad feature in connection with Mrs. Coffey's death is that Mr. Coffey, who is an engineer on the Chesapeake and Ohio, returned only Thursday evening from Clifton Forge, where he had undergone a severe operation. When Mr. Coffey reached his home the aged wife was bright, cheerful and happy over his recovery and return. Two hours later she was taken ill.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Phoebus Baptist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock and will be in charge of her pastor, Rev. S. W. Bennett. The interment will be made in Oakland cemetery.

The following gentlemen will act as pallbearers.

Active—Messrs. S. S. Thomas, R. J. Goodwin and J. R. Chalkley, of Richmond; George M. Suttler, George R. Penny and E. M. Tennis, of Phoebus. Honorary—Messrs. W. F. Larrabee, R. O. Clarke, E. C. Kaiser and M. T. Webber, of Phoebus; M. C. Ransone, of Hampton; J. N. Clarke, of Newport News; J. C. Goble and Stephen L. Dode, of the National Soldiers' Home. Mrs. Coffey was one of the organizers of the Phoebus Baptist church and a great worker for the success of that denomination.

Mr. Hawks On "Happiness."

Mr. A. W. Hawks, better known as "Sunshine" Hawks, will be the speaker at the men's meeting in the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Hawks will talk on "Happiness."

TALKED STATE RIGHTS

William J. Bryan Advances Sound Arguments in Speech at Atlanta.

STATE'S PLACE TOWARD NATION

Relative Sphere of the Two is the Great New Question—The Government Which is Closest to the People is the Best.

By Associated Press.

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 19.—William Jennings Bryan before a great crowd at the State Fair today declared: "The average man wants his own state to control its own affairs."

"Since I was here a year ago," he continued, "a new condition has been forced into the political arena. It is difficult to state what the paramount question of the day may be. A great new question has arisen; that is the relative sphere of the state and the nation."

"It is necessary that a concrete question arise before the average man becomes interested in it."

Mr. Bryan then described recent events, wherein the executive of the nation asserted threats rights for the federal nation over state rights in California; he alluded to the effort in North Carolina of a railroad asserting the right to suspend a law of the people; and of the recent national convention of Attorneys General which adopted a memorial to Congress asking that the doctrine, which Governor Glenn, of North Carolina stood for be made that of the whole country by act of Congress, and asked: "What does this mean?"

"It means that the average man wants his own state to control its own affairs. It is the assertion of the right of local self government. That government is best which is closest to the people."

Mr. Bryan arrived in the city before six o'clock this morning. At 11 o'clock he was given an informal reception by Governor Smith at the executive mansion, and in the afternoon a public reception was given in his honor. He spoke again tonight at a "dollar dinner" given by the Young Men's Democrat League.

DR. OGDEN GUEST HERE.

President of the Normal School is Visiting His Daughter.

Dr. Robert C. Ogden, of New York, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Alexander Purvis, at the Hampton Normal School. Dr. Ogden is the president of the board of trustees of the Normal School and was until a few weeks back one of the leading merchants in New York city. He is also the president of the Southern Educational Association.

Dr. Ogden has about recovered from his recent illness and his visit to the school at this time is the first since the opening of the present session.

WIRELESS FOR CUTTERS.

Instruments to be Provided for Revenue Cutter Service.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Orders have been issued at the Treasury Department for the installation of wireless instruments on six revenue cutters of the first class. The installation of wireless on as many more of the cutters as possible is contemplated during the fiscal year. If the system proves as useful as the trial now in progress indicates, an appropriation will be asked from the next Congress to extend the equipment.

Experimental installation was made on the Algonquin at Norfolk, Va., and five other cutters will be equipped as soon as the work can be done. Four systems will be tried, the De Forest, Stone, Shoemaker and Telefunken. The system most effective will be adopted when the installation is extended. Two cutters on the Pacific coast to have wireless are the Manning and the McCullough. It is pointed out that several cutters are often sent out to search for a lost vessel with instructions to remain out until the lost vessel is located or their supplies are exhausted. Should the vessel be sighted the following day there is, without wireless, no way of recalling the cutters conducting the search.

United States Officers Charged With Murder.

GREENSBOROUGH, N. C., Oct. 19.—Warrants charging murder against United States Marshal J. M. Millikan, Revenue Agent Screven and four other officers have been sworn out before State Magistrate Collins. Last week these officers composed a posse in search of John Brame, accused of blockading. He was shot while fleeing and died yesterday.

Cuts His Throat, Fearing Hanging. MANASSAS, Oct. 19.—R. T. Maddox, who lives in Lower Loudoun county, and is now under indictment, charged with attacking Mrs. Mary McCuen September 17, Thursday, tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat. He conceived the idea that some one was coming to hang him Thursday at 2 o'clock and announced his determination to cut himself out of the way.

FOR TREASURER.

To the Voters of Elizabeth City County:

I shall be a candidate for treasurer of the county in the general election to be held on Tuesday, November 4, and I will appreciate most cordially your support. I am not running as a candidate of any political party, clique or organization, but shall submit my claims to the people, believing that it is the voters who must decide who shall serve them in their offices of trust. Seventeen years in the office gave me a training that certainly fits me for the position, and it is again elected to the position it will be my aim to treat all of the people as I did while in office. 6-5-11 JESSE S. JONES.
